NOTICE.

Respecting lands in the State of Mississippi, ceded by the treaty with the Choctaw Indians, concluded at Dancing Rabbit Creek in September 1830.

THE concluding proviso of the act of Congress approved 22d June, 1838, entitled "an Act to grant preemption rights to settlers on the public lands," (in virtue of which, certain lands in the Choctaw cession aforesaid, have been since withheld from private entry) having been repealed by law, notice is hereby given, that such of the Lands aforesaid, as lie within the limits of the District subject to sale at this office, will be again, liable to private entry, after thirty days from date hereof.

The law provides "that such repeal shall not affect any title, to any tract of land secured in virtue of said treaty." Given under my had at the Land Office, at Columbus, Mississippi, this 29th of October, 1842.
